Flint, Mich. – FIM Flint Repertory Theatre presents Little Shop of Horrors in Concert at FIM Capitol Theatre in downtown Flint November 17 and 18. The upcoming staged concert will star Olivier Award-winner Lesli Margherita (Matilda) as Audrey, Justin Huertas (Lizard Boy) as Seymour, Jason Veasey (A Strange Loop, Only Murders in the Building) as Orin, and Terren Wooten (aka Kizha Carr That Bearded Queen) as Audrey II.

Flint Rep takes over the Capitol Theatre with a brand new concert production of this wildly inventive, hit rock musical. With an infectious score that gleefully combines rock, Motown and Broadway, Little Shop of Horrors ensures toe tapping along to this hilarious, joyously entertaining, tongue-in-cheek delight. The concert will also feature Flint Rep veteran Jason Briggs as Mushnik, Arielle Crosby as Crystal, Lulu Fall (Natasha, Pierre and the Great Comet of 1812) as Ronnette and Bryana Hall as Chiffon.

“We’re so thrilled to produce this screamingly funny theatrical concert featuring a cast of Broadway stars, as well as some of our favorite Michigan performers,” said Flint Rep Producing Artistic Director Michael Lluberes. “Little Shop is a favorite for so many of us and this will be an outrageous rock concert version of the show like you’ve never seen before!”

Directed by Ovation Award winner Michael Matthews, presented at the iconic, historical FIM Capitol Theatre in downtown Flint, the concert will feature choreography by Janet Roston, musical direction by Brian E. Buckner, scenic design by Eli Sherlock, costume design by Whitney Locher, lighting design by Zach Blane and sound design by Nina Field.

Tickets are available at www.tickets.thefim.org and at a FIM Ticket Center box office at FIM Whiting Auditorium or FIM Capitol Theatre, or by calling (810) 237-7333. Genesee County residents receive a 30 percent discount as a benefit of the Genesee County Arts Education and Cultural Enrichment Millage.
