Flint, Mich.— The Rocky Horror Picture Show, the longest-running theatrical release in film history, celebrates its 48th anniversary by kicking off two national tours, including a stop at FIM Capitol Theatre at 8 p.m. Saturday, Oct. 14. Tickets are on sale now for $30 to $145.

The show features a costume contest and a performance by the Michigan Rocky Horror Preservation Society while the full un-edited film is shown behind them.

Patricia Quinn, the incomparable Magenta, is joining the tour this year.

“50 years ago I auditioned for the Rocky Horror show at the 60-seat Royal Court Theatre Upstairs in London. I asked my agent, ‘what’s it about?’ He replied ‘something to do with a circus.’ He wasn’t wrong. I’ve been in this circus ever since! ‘Cirque Du Rocky Horror’ I’m lucky! We’re all lucky! Don’t dream it, be it,” says Quinn.

The $100 VIP meet and greet add-on includes:

- Special Rocky Horror VIP laminate
- A photo taken with Patricia Quinn with your own camera
- Bring your own personal item for Patricia to autograph, or pick out a photo from Patricia’s collection

The Rocky Horror Picture Show’s National Tour is produced by The Stander Group.

Tickets are available at tickets.thefim.org, 810-237-7333 or at a FIM Ticket Center box office at either FIM Capitol Theatre or FIM Whiting Auditorium. Genesee County residents enjoy a 30 percent discount as a benefit of the Genesee County Arts Education and Cultural Enrichment Millage. Your tax dollars are at work.
