Bring Arts Education to your School -

Hocus Focus: Residency

October 12-23, 2026; January 25-February 5, 2027; April 26-May 7, 2027

Hocus Focus™ uses magic-based activities to support students with diverse learning needs, including those with autism, cognitive delays, emotional disabilities, and learning differences.

For more than a decade, FIM has partnered with Dr. Kevin Spencer to bring his performance-based therapy into local schools.

In 2026-2027, the program will expand to serve more students while providing professional development for educators on arts-informed instruction and assessment.

For more information about bringing Hocus Focus to your school, please contact Aiesha Lewis at alewis@thefim.org.

Troubadours - The Pirates of Polyphony

The Troubadours return for the 2026-2027 school year with a swashbuckling musical adventure! As they sail the seas and travel through time, students discover the magic of polyphony while enjoying a live performance by professional musicians from FIM and the Flint Symphony Orchestra.

For more information about bringing the Troubadours to your school, please contact Aiesha Lewis at alewis@thefim.org.

Flint Rep on the Road - Metamorphoses

February 8 - 28, 2027

Flint Rep on the Road returns this season with a three-week winter touring adaptation of the epic poem Metamorphoses by Ovid.

In this fast-paced journey through the myths of Ovid, mortals and deities collide in stories of passion, jealousy, humor, and loss—where humans become animals, rivers, stars, and more. Metamorphoses is a theatrical adventure that brings ancient stories to life, revealing a timeless truth: change is the one thing we all share.

If you would like to bring this production to your school or community group, contact Emily Nichter at enichter@thefim.org.
